

Model withdrawal form

Explanation:

MADE TO SHINE

Legally you are entitled to the right of withdrawal: within the 14-day term you are allowed to send back your ordered articles. The term starts as soon as you've received all your ordered articles. By making use of the withdrawal form you're enabled to make use of the right to withdraw. Please note that it is not necessary to fill in this form, returning the articles by including the return form is sufficient as well.

You'll receive a return form with every order. In case you've lost the form or did not receive it, please make use of this form. This form should only be used when you wish to return your articles and receive a refund. Please include this form and return it to us together with the articles you wish to return.
